THE ALEXANDRIA GERMAN

The first dance of the season of the Alexandria German Club, usually known as the "Thanksgiving german," was given last night at McBurney's Hall.

The room was thronged with the young society people of Alexandria, as well as an unusually large number of strangers from other cities. The affair began at about 10 o'clock. Mr. Beverly leading. That gentlemen having been called away early was succeeded by the assistant leader, Mr. J. S. Douglas, jr., who fulfilled the duties of that difficult office in a careful and efficient manner. The barnance was practically omitted much to the disappointment of the many advocates and admirers of that inspiring measure. The chaplains were Messrs. J. S. Douglas, Geo. Anderson, W. A. Smoot, jr., Arthur Snowden and Geo. S. French. Among the invited guests were Miss Kuborn, of Maryland; Miss England, of Baltimore; Miss Neely, of Memphis; and Messrs. Powers, of Port Royal; Bay, of St. Louis; Beverly, of Fairfax; Cox, of Georgetown; Pleasanton, of Philadelphia; Hrg, of Washington; Maddox, of Fredericksburg; Robt. S. Siding, city; R. Stuart Hunter, Baltimore; Dr. Edgar Woods, U. S. N.; Dr. J. Miller, U. S. A.; R. B. Farr, Fairfax; F. M. Russell, Fairfax; Randolph Harper, Perry Lippett, Howard, Jan. Birrell, Lee Clarkson and H. Stanley, of Washington.

TEMPLE ACCEPTED.

The committee representing Columbus Lodge, A. F. and A. M., of Clarendon, Alexandria county, met yesterday and accepted the home recently completed by Contractor Julian D. Knight, of this city. This is one of the largest and best equipped buildings in this section and is a valuable property and ornamental addition to Alexandria county. The interior is of hard-wood finish. The building is lighted by electricity and gasoline. The trimmings are of polished brick and concrete; the cornice is of concrete. On Monday night, in honor of the finishing touches to the building, an oyster supper and ball will be given in the auditorium of the new Masonic lodge to which the D. E. W. of Columbia commissioners have been invited, as have also several Alexandria Masons. The building is in its entirety reflects great credit on the architect, Messrs. Upman and Harding, of Washington, and is another addition to the record of Alexandria's contractor—Mr. J. D. Knight.

DOWRY, John B. Doble and Frank Smith and the end men are Messrs. Tomney, Westlake, Birrell, and Dr. Gorman, of this city, and Maxley and Trotter, of Washington. Their advertisement appears in another column.

MARTHA WASHINGTON CAFE.

As will be seen by the advertisement, the Martha Washington Cafe will be opened on Monday next at the northeast corner of King and Washington streets. The cafe has been fitted up in modern style, and the cuisine and service, it is promised, will be satisfactory to every particular. Situated as it is in a central part of the city, it will prove a great convenience to many Alexandrians, and equally so to the floating population, tourists and others, who visit the city daily.

FRATERNAL VISIT.

Sirepta Lodge, I. O. O. F., last night paid a fraternal visit to Columbia Lodge, of Washington. The members assembled at Sirepta Hall, on King street, and awaited the 7 o'clock electric car, but it was about 30 minutes late and it was nearly 8 o'clock before they departed. The second degree of the order was conferred on 25 candidates.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE.

The annual meeting of the Civic Improvement League was held last night at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, the following officers being elected for the year: President, Mr. Edward S. Leadbeater; vice presidents, Mrs. Eleanor Washington Howard, Miss Fanny Herbert, Miss Helen Cummings, the mayor of Alexandria, Messrs. Riber. S. Birrell, Henry K. Field and A. D. Brockett; recording secretary, Mr. Julian Y. Williams; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John M. Johnson; treasurer, Mr. Taylor Burke; auditor, Mr. Robert S. Jones. Chairman of committees: Street, Miss Mary Carlin; membership, Mrs. Fred J. Peß; press, Miss Rose M. MacDonald; school, Miss Constance Boas; entertainment, Dr. William M. Smith.

DEATH OF WARRINGTON GILLINGHAM.

Mr. Warrington Gillingham, an old and well-known resident of Fairfax county, and who was originally well-known in this city, died at his home, "Medway," early yesterday afternoon. The deceased was 75 years old. He leaves a widow and six children—two sons and four daughters. Mr. Gillingham had been in feeble health for some time, and during the past two weeks he had been confined to his bed. The deceased was a native of New Jersey, but he had lived in lower Fairfax county since he was 15 years old. He was a surveyor by profession. His funeral will take place from the Woodlawn Friends' meeting house at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

DEATH OF C. F. MYERS.

Mr. Charles F. Myers, a machinist, employed in the shops of the Southern Railway and secretary of the local machinists' union, died about 6 o'clock last evening at his home, 907 Cameron street. He had been ill for several months. Mr. Myers was about 65 years old. He came to Alexandria from Lynwood, Md. He is survived by his wife and these children: C. Clarence Myers, of Asheville, N. C.; Miss S. Marie Myers, of Bridgeport, Va.; Miss Ruth E. Myers, of Alexandria; Mrs. Leslie Smelser, of New Windsor, Md.; and Miss John A. Engler, of Lynwood, Md.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

The crowds at the Opera House on Thursday night were thought to be immense, but when those who are enumerated with the Gay Johnson Stock Company arrived last night the same condition arose, as the house was packed. The drama was "My New Hampshire Home." As played it brought back the thoughts and scenes of childhood's happy hours, and was filled with the tenderness of youth, intermingled by the comedy furnished by "Jake." Tonight the company will put on one of those side-splitting comedies, entitled "Ties." Jake is at his best in this comedy.

TURNED OVER TO STATE.

Charles Williams and William Kelley, who were arrested several days ago charged with opening a letter addressed to J. O. Lynch and taking therefrom money and a postoffice order, and who had been held subject to the action of the United States authorities, were today turned over to the State, Commissioner Garnett having communicated with the postoffice authorities and ascertained that the case against the two men was an offense against the state and that they can be tried in the Police Court of this city.

SEARCHING FOR FUGITIVE WIFE.

Alvin Roles, a native of Loudoun county, arrived in this city this morning in search of his wife who, he said, eloped on Monday night with Archie Roles her husband's first cousin. The deserted husband had learned that the couple first came to Alexandria, but their objective point was Alabama. The police made futile endeavors to locate the elopers in this city. The husband made arrangements to leave late this afternoon for Alabama.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Eaton presiding]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Nathaniel Phillips, colored, suspected of stealing a suit case from the residence of Constant Pomet, in West End, was dismissed, no person having appeared against him.

Joseph Williams, colored, charged with being drunk in the street, was sent to the work house for 20 days.

MOON WAS IN ECLIPSE.

The eclipse of the moon occurred this morning, the lunar body entering the earth's shadow at 11 minutes past 2 o'clock and becoming total at 14 minutes past 3. The totality of the eclipse lasted until 5 minutes of 4. The spectacle was a beautiful one, but owing to the unseasonably hour comparatively few people witnessed it. The eclipse was visible throughout all parts of the Mexico, Central and

ER LAUNCHED.

The larger steamer Three Three Three, built by the Maryland, Virginia Railroad Company, was launched at Sparrows Point, Baltimore, this afternoon. Miss Helen Hale Thomson, of Wilmington, Del., a granddaughter of Capt. Willard Thomson, was sponsor for the vessel. A description of the steamer has heretofore been published in the Gazette.

ALLEGED GAMBLERS.

The trial of the four alleged proprietors of the three social clubs raided October 10 last, will, it is announced, be heard in the Police Court at 2 o'clock next Monday afternoon. At the same time the trial of the thirty-odd men captured in the places will also be heard. All the accused were released on bail or collateral.
